SUCCESS COMES IN MANY FORMS.

CASE STUDY 1

“PROFITS HAVE GROWN.”

“I own a dental practice in Kent. I’ve been working alongside Mark and Andrew at Sobell Rhodes for about two years; and it’s been really beneficial for me and my practice. The first thing I noticed was their encouragement to realise how much the practice could grow. They gave me all the planning and strategies to actually expect more, grow the practice and the profits.

It was really good working with Andrew and Mark during the whole of the COVID lockdown - with all that anxiety. Personally, it was just nice to have people there who you could ring. And what was brilliant about them - and why I recommend them - is that you know whenever you ring they get back to you that same morning or afternoon. Sometimes when you start to work with people, they are very keen at the beginning, and then they just sort of disappear off after a few weeks or months, but not them.

They’ve always been there, always replied to emails, always replied to phone calls. There’s nothing I can’t ask them, and if they don’t know the answer, they recommend an expert that they know will help us.

“Since I’ve been working with them, the practice profits have grown. It’s been a win-win.”
